P R E F A C E.

IT was easy to foresee, that the Publication of the STEMMATA CHICHELEANA would be productive of many new Discoveries, of Families who could deduce their Descent from Thomas Chichele, the Father of the Founder of ALL SOULS COLLEGE. The Editor, therefore, of that Collection, thought proper, by an Advertisement at the End of it, to express his Desire of receiving, "from any Gentlemen, who should specify "their names and places of Abode, an Account of the Issue and Descendants of the respective Marriages contained in it, which related to "their own Families, or lay within the Compass of their Knowledge and "Acquaintance:" And to promise, "that all such Additions should be "gratefully acknowledged, and applied to their proper Uses, if a farther "Occasion should offer." The Intelligence received, in consequence of this Invitation, makes a part of the following Supplement; and the Names of the Gentlemen, who have been the Contributors, are respectively noticed at the End of each Table.

BUT it was not the Editor's Intention to confine himself, in the present Publication, to the Contributions of his Correspondents. He hath, on this Occasion, had recourse to whatever Records lay within his Reach in the University, which he thought could give any genealogical Intelligence of the Family of Chichele. Of the chief of these, or such as he hath made most frequent use of, he thinks himself obliged to give some Account.

A FEW years ago it was the good fortune of the College to purchase, at the Sale of the late Mr Anstis's Library, several large Volumes in Manuscript of his own Writing, chiefly relating to the History and Constitution of All Souls College, and especially to the Case of Founder's Kindred. In one of these Volumes he had begun to trace the Pedigrees of the Nobility and chief Gentry of the Kingdom, who were intituled to this Claim of Kindred; and to this Collection had prefixed the following Title: Stemma Genealogicum Chicheleanum exhibens omnes fere familias a Roberto et Wilhelmo (fratribus Henrici Chichele Archiepiscopi Cantuar.) recta linea descendentes. This was to have followed as an Appendix to one of his Tracts; as we may collect from a Letter of his to Dr George Clarke, dated "Mortlake 29 Aug. 1728," in which he says, "It is above twenty Years since, there fell into my hands a Pamphlet intituled, The Case of Founder's Kinsmen, &c.," and as "I then had leisure enough, I took the Pains to examine it, and to write an Answer in Latin to it, which now lies by me, with an Appendix containing the several distinct families (whereof some are Noble^b and others of the first Quality) descended from the two Brothers of the Founder; who, and their Descendants, must be allowed to be strictly Consanguinei et de Genere, though I believe very few of these families (if any of them) know this their Kindred." He afterwards hints, "that he might be forced to print his Book, which, says he, I think should be rather locked up in your Archives than be made publick." Accordingly, a few Years after, his Son having failed in his Pretensions to a Fellowship at All Souls, he thought himself forced to print. The Impression, however, was left unfinished by his Death; and the compleat Manuscript, (according to his more favourable Destination of it) together with one of the incompleat printed Copies, is now locked up in the Archives of the College.

THE chief Contents of this Appendix^c are the same which have been published already in the Stemmata Chicheleana; and thus far it serves only to ^a It was supposed to be written by Sir Nathaniel Lloyd, and published about the Year 1700.

^b The Chichele Blood was very early introduced into the Families of Vere, Howard, Montagu, Harvey and Raper. This hath given it a very speedy Diffusion into the Families of the Nobility in general; so that at this time we may reckon more than one Hundred and twenty Peers of England, besides many of Scotland and Ireland, who are descended from Thomas Chichele, the Father of the Founder of All Souls College.

^c There is another Appendix subjoined to this Tract, in the Manuscript, which Mr Anstis hath not mentioned in his Letter to Dr Clarke. Having established his Descent from Thomas Chichele, he goes on to shew that he is likewise descended from King Edward the First; and seems to take no little Pride in the discovery. He enters on this part of his Work with the following Introduction.

*Tabulas Majorum meorum
Genealogicas
Posterisque meis forsan Gratas
Ex Archivis, Diplomatis,
Scriptisque coetaneis,

Manu mea propria exaravi
JOHANNES ANSTIS.*

Cum nescire Proavum suum Censorem fuisse, teste Tullio, turpe sit, turpius sane foret se Atrovis editum Regibus ignorare; praesertim cum, juxta Jurisconsultos, Nobilitas a Regno sanguine proveniens ad Posteris in infinitum progrediatur: Rogo ergo vehementer Lectorem, ne arrogantiae sed Pietati nostrae tribuat, quod non tantum a ROBERTO CHICHELEO, fratre HENRICI Archiepiscopi Cantuariensis, in stemmate clare, plane, ac ingenue descripto, sed ab EDUARDO REGE ANGLIAE, hujus nominis post Conquestum primo, altius genus petam et deducam. Id etiam mihi faciendum putavi, ut, ORTU TAM ILLUSTRIMEO cognito, Custodis et Sociorum Collegii Chicheleani benevolentiam feliciter conciliarem: Quod maxime optatum si tandem impetra-vero, non solum ingens operae pretium, summumque Beneficium, sed etiam Honoris amplissimum Testimonium ab eis accepisse gaudebo.

The Family of Anstis is not the only one that can boast of mixing the Royal Blood with that of Chichele. (See the Note to N^o 320.) One would have thought, however, that Garter King at Arms might have seen the Vanity of this kind of Boasting; especially as, in the very same Page, he had quoted a Passage from Seneca, which sets this sort of Merit in its true Light, viz. Neminem Regem non ex servis esse oriundum, neminem non servum ex Regibus. Omnia ista longa varietas miscuit, et sursum deorsum versavit. Epist. 44.

add Authority to that Collection. But there are some new Tables in Mr Anstis, which did not lie open to the Discovery of the Editor of the Stemmata. Some of these have produced a very plentiful Harvest of Kindred; and they are all made use of in the present Supplement.

THE Collections of Dr Rawlinson and Dr Browne Willis, in the Bodleian Library, have been carefully examined, and found of great service; especially in lengthening out the Pedigrees of several old Families, which were but barely touched upon by Mr Anstis.

BUT the greatest Assistance hath been received, as will be seen by the frequent References made to them, from the Visitation Books of several of the Counties of England, now in the Library of Queen's College, and formerly belonging to Sir Joseph Williamson. A great Number of new Acquisitions have been made to the Stemmata from these Records; and the Editor cannot omit this Opportunity of returning his Thanks to the Gentlemen of that Society, for the easy Access to them in which they have always indulged him.

IT may be proper, perhaps, to remind the Perusers of the following Tables, that where the Families of the Nobility or Baronets are concerned, the Authenticity of them will, in general, be found to depend on the Publications of Dugdale, Segar, Collins, the English Baronetage, &c; though it was thought unnecessary to specify these Authorities in the respective Tables.

UPON the whole, the Editor hath taken particular care not to admit any thing into this Collection, but what he was well persuaded would stand the Test of the Examination of the College, whenever a regular Proof should be called for. He hath checked many Accounts sent in to him, by better Evidence within his own Reach, and rejected them. Some of his Correspondents, therefore, must not be surpris'd if they find their Contributions have been made no use of in this Publication. They were frequently founded on Mistakes and Inadvertencies, and a Want of sufficient Criticism in genealogical Enquiries; at least the Editor will candidly believe so, and not imagine that any of them were intended to impose upon his Ignorance and Credulity.

IV

P R E F A C E.

THOUGH it is not his Intention to be concerned in any farther Publication of the Pedigrees of the Chichele Blood; he thinks proper to give Notice in this place, that whatever well authenticated Intelligence shall be sent in to him, of Families which have escaped his Discovery, it shall be thankfully received and carefully preserved. For this purpose, it is his Design to keep always by him an exact Register of all such Intelligence; and to take what care he can, that it may be handed down to future Successions in the College. All Letters to the Editor of the Stemmata Chicheleana may be directed, as before, under Cover to Mr James Fletcher, or Mr Daniel Prince, Booksellers in Oxford.

§ In a note in Rawlinson's Collections it is observed, that, by this match with Cath. Denny, these Fleetwoods are branched from the Grays Barons of Wilton, Hastings Earls of Huntingdon, the Greys Earls of Kent, the Talbots of Salop, the Rotelers Barons of Wemme, the Ferrers Barons of Groby, the Fitzburghs Barons of Sowerleigh, from Hugh Longchamp Baron of Wilton, the Glanvills of Feversham, the Beauforts of Hoo in Hertfordshire, from Richard Earl of Clare, from the Bohuns Barons &c, from William Fitzosborne first Earl of Hereford, from the Somersets Earls of Worcester, from the Beauforts Dukes of Somerset, from John of Gaunt King of Castile, in Spain, and Duke of Lancaster, in England; and from all the Kings of England &c. upwards &c.---And, we may now add, from Thomas Chichele, the honest Tailor of Higham Ferrers, to whose Consanguinity some of them may one day, perhaps, be more obliged, than to all the noble and royal Blood, with which the Antiquarian hath so liberally supplied them.

* She is called Anne in some Pedigrees in the College of Arms; and by Segar, Maud.—It is necessary to observe here, that this account of the marriages of Sir John Longville differs from that which is given in the English Baronetage, Vol. V. p. 350. Edit. 1741. where it is said "that Sir J. Longville married two wives; first Joan, daughter of Sir Rob. Tresham, Knight, by whom he had no issue; secondly Anne, daughter of Laurence Saunders, and relict of Bartholomew Tate, of De la Prè, in Northamptonshire, Esq; by whom he had four sons, 1. Thomas; 2. Arthur; 3. John; and 4. Richard, who died f. p." But this account is not supported by any one authority, and is contradicted by Segar, Anstis, the books in the Herald's Office, and the collections of Rawlinson and Browne Willis, all which agree in making the daughter of Sir Ralph Hastings, whatever her name was, the first wife of Sir John Longville; and in making no mention of Anne Saunders, the relict of Bartholomew Tate. And, perhaps, this matter may be thoroughly cleared up, if we look into the Vis. Book of Northamptonshire, 1617. p. 92. where we find that Anne, the daughter of Laurence Saunders, of Harrington, married 1. ... Bisford, 2. ... Wadham, 3. Bartholomew Tate, of De La Prè; and 4. Thomas (and not Sir John) Longville, of Wolverton, Bucks. This Thomas was undoubtedly the eldest son of Sir John Longville; who, as well as his brothers, John and Richard, died without issue. It is said in one of Rawlinson's books, that Thomas, John and Richard were natural children; and that Sir John Longville had no legitimate issue, but Arthur and Mary. It is agreed, on all sides, that he had no child by the daughter of Tresham.

Mr Peshall grounds his Information upon we know not; but it is contradicted by the Baronetage, Edit. 1720. Vol. I. p. 389. where the Lady is said to have been the daughter of John Harcourt of Rampton (or Ranton) in Com. Staff. And this Account is confirmed by the Visitation of Kent taken in the year 1619, where she is called filia Johannis Harcourt, de Ranton; and by the Visitation of Staffordshire, 1583, where she is noticed as . . . filia nupta Johanni Pershall. The family of the Harcourts of Ranton in Staffordshire was indeed a Branch of that of Stanton Com. Oxon; but they had been divided, for two or three Generations, before the Marriage of Agnes Darrel into the Family of Stanton, as may be seen in the last mentioned Visitation Book of Com. Staff. 1583, Fam. Harcourt of Ranton. We cannot therefore, in the Face of so much Evidence to the contrary, admit the Family of the Peshalls to a share of the Blood of Chichele, by Catherine Harcourt, the supposed Relict of John Herle.

She is expressly mentioned in the Eng. Baronetage, Edit. 1741. Art. ISHAM, Vol. II. p. 36. as the daughter of Gregory Isham of Barby, by his wife Elizabeth Catelene; and as the wife of Thomas Burrard of Lymington. The name of Elizabeth is likewise to be found among the daughters of Gregory Isham in the Vis. of Northamptonshire 1617; where she is named as the youngest, except three, of his numerous Progeny of seventeen children; and was probably at that time about four or five years of age.

✱ Dr Roger Gifford was elected Fellow of All-Souls, as a Founder's Kinsman, in the Year 1563; but his Pedigree, deducing his Descent from Thomas Chichele, (as is the Case of some others, see List of Kindred STEMM. CHICH. p. 156.) is not to be found in the Archives of the College. There is no doubt, however, but that the Descendants of him, and his Brother George, would have their Claim of Kindred to the Founder admitted, on their appearing as Candidates at an Election. It has been thought proper, in the above Table, to insert the Ancestors of Roger Gifford, and their Marriages, (both on the side of his Father and Mother,) up to the Time of the Founder; in order to give as much Ground as could be obtained, for discovering, by future Enquiries, the Connection between him and Thomas Chichele. Hitherto, indeed, there seems to be no room for forming Conjectures on this Subject; unless we may be allowed to suppose that his Consanguinity might come through the Family of Andrewes, by the Marriage of Agnes, the Daughter of Apner Andrewes, with Thomas Winslow; whose Daughter and coheir Agnes, married John Gifford: (Desc. 2 and 3.) What may give some little Pretence for such a surmise is, that in the Year 1558 (five Years before the Election of Roger Gifford), a Person of the Name of that Family, John Andrewes, was elected Fellow, as a Kinsman of the Founder. And from this circumstance, perhaps, we may be allowed to suppose that Richard Andrewes, whom the Archbishop appointed the first Warden of his new Foundation, and who was his great Favourite, might be of the same Family, and his near Relation. However this may be, we have nothing in this matter better than Conjecture to go upon; there being no Pedigree of John Andrewes in the Archives of the College, any more than of Roger Gifford.
